2. Subs. by S.O. 783(E), dated 25th October, 1985 (w.e.f. 25-10-1985).

3. Ins. by S.O. 934(E), dated 17th October, 2000.

- (iii) Cash and Account Books,
- (iv) Bank books,
- (v) Copy of its Constitution,
- (vi) Registration Certificate (if registered),
- (vii) Affiliation certificate and payment receipts if the association is affiliated to any All-India or State Federation or Central Organisation,
- (viii) Copy of the latest annual return submitted to the Registrar of Trade Unions,
- (ix) List of office-bearers, and
- (x) Minutes book.

3. If an association fails to produce the list of its members and other records, a second and final notice shall be given by the Designated Officer (by Registered Post/Acknowledgement Due) asking it to produce them at the stipulated place and time within ten days from the date of receipt of the second and final notice. If it again fails to produce them on the second occasion also, no further attempt shall be made to verify its membership. However, in respect of the associations which have submitted the lists and records, the Verification Officer shall examine them and ascertain the number of members who had paid three months' subscription within the period of six months preceding the date of reckoning. This examination shall be 100 per cent. and shall be done in the presence of the office-bearers of the association concerned but not in the presence of the office-bearers or representatives of other associations in the bank. While doing the verification of membership, the Verification Officer shall give due consideration to any representations which the association officials might make to him.

4. The Verification Officer shall, thereafter, send to the Designated Officer the list of members of the officers' associations of the respective zone/region. The Designated Officer shall, therefore, ensure that the names of members thus verified are included in the list and are borne on the rolls of the management on the date of reckoning. All those members whose names are not borne on the rolls of the management on the date of reckoning shall be eliminated from the list.

5. The Designated Officer shall, thereafter, intimate in writing to the association concerned that the verified lists of their respective members in the bank are ready for inspection by the association representative at an appointed time and place. The association shall also at the same time be informed that after inspection of the verified list of members of the other association they should send, in writing, their specific objections, if any, to the entries in these lists, within 15 days of the date of inspection. It should be made clear to the association that general and vague objections like inflated membership shall not be considered, and the objections should give the names of persons whose membership of an association is objected to and the reasons, therefor.

(The association representatives shall be allowed to make notes from the verified lists shown to them in the presence of the Designated Officers; they shall, however, not be allowed to take any of the lists, nor a copy of the lists shall be given to them).

6. The objections received from the association regarding the names of members shall be referred to the Verification Officer for the concerned zone/region. The Verification Officer shall conduct personal interrogation of the members on the basis of systematic sampling system:

- (i) If the objection lists furnished by an association consists of 500 or less names of members, the number of persons to be personally interrogated should be 20 per cent. subject to a minimum of 100;
- (ii) If the objection lists furnished by an association consists of more than 500 but not more than 1,000 names, the number of persons to be personally interrogated should be 15 per cent. subject to a minimum of 100;
- (iii) If the objection list furnished by an association consists of more than 1,000 but not more than 2,000 names, the number of persons to be personally interrogated should be 10 per cent. subject to a minimum of 150.
- (iv) If the objection list furnished by an association consists of more than 2,000 but not more than 5,000 names, the number of persons to be personally interrogated should be 5 per cent. subject to a minimum of 200; and
- (v) If the objection list furnished by a association consists of more than 5,000 names, the number of persons to be personally interrogated should be 2 per cent. subject to a minimum of 250.

A systematic sample means sampling from a list by taking individuals at equally spaced intervals called sampling intervals. The sampling interval should be:

$$\frac{\text{Total number of persons in the objection list}}{\text{Number of persons in the sample}}$$

Thus, for example, if there are 400 officers in the objection list and a sample of 100 officers is to be selected the Verification Officer should select every $[4(x)/1(x)\text{th}]$ or 4th worker in the list. It is, however, not necessary that in all cases the selection should begin from the 4th name in the list; the first sample may either be the 1st name in the list; or the second, or the third or the fourth. Thus, for example, if the 1st name is selected as the first sample then subsequent samples will be 5th, 9th or 13th names: if, however, the second name is taken as the first sample the subsequent samples would be 6th, 10th or 14th names in the list.

The persons selected for personal interrogation should among other things be asked whether they are members of a particular association and whether they had paid subscriptions for 3 months within a period of six months from the date of reckoning and, if so, the amount of subscription paid and the months for which it was paid. The Verification Officer shall make a list of members personally interrogated giving their ticket numbers, names of section where working and the result of personal interrogations.

7. Where the sample check reveals that certain members interrogated deny membership of a association, its list of members may be so modified reducing therefrom the actual number of members who deny membership of the association. If the persons who, on interrogation, deny their membership of the association claiming them as their members and inform the Verification Officer that they are members of another association, the Verification Officer shall check their membership with the list of members and records of that association and adjust its list accordingly, that is to say, their names shall be added to the list of the other association, if they are not already included in it, and excluded, in the manner mentioned above, from the list of the claimant association.

8. While conducting personal verification as mentioned in paragraph 6 above, the Verification Officer shall not allow the representatives of any association or management to be present.

9. On completion of the verification work, the Verification Officers shall furnish a report to the Designated Officer who thereon based on the report received determine the officers' association having majority status. The name of the majority status officers' association shall thereon be finally intimated to the Central Government.

10. Appellate Authority.—In case any association has objection to the majority status of an association so determined by the Designated Officer they may, in writing, giving specific reasons for disagreement/objection file an appeal within a period of 15 days from the date of issue of such order by the Designated Officer to the Executive Director and in his absence the ¹[Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer], of the bank who shall be the Appellate Authority. The Appellate Authority shall then decide either by conduct of inquiry or by perusal of records and pass a speaking order within a period of not more than 15 days. The Appellate Authority may give an opportunity of hearing to the association who has filed such appeal. Copy of each such order shall be sent to the Designated Officer who shall therefore modify, rectify the final list if need be keeping in view the order of the Appellate Authority.

11. Obtaining a panel from majority Association.—The Central Government shall ask the bank management to obtain a panel of 3 (three) names of the office bearers, in the order of preference, duly elected by the majority officers' association for appointment of officer, employee, director on the bank's board, within 30 days. Central Government may at its discretion increase the time limit upto a maximum period of another 60 days on a specific request of the association. In case the association fails to respond and does not send the panel within the specified time, the Central Government may ask the bank management to obtain a panel of three names from the next largest association.

12. The bank may forward such panel of names from the majority association or other association alongwith the particulars of each of the names, in addition, the bank shall also send following information in respect of each of the persons in the panel:—

- (i) complete bio-data;
- (ii) copies of the Confidential Reports for the last 5 years;
- (iii) certificate to the effect that no vigilance/disciplinary case is pending or being contemplated;
- (iv) certificate to the effect that they are not disqualified from being appointed as director on the bank's board as per the provisions of the relevant statute/scheme;
- (v) integrity and moral character certificate by the bank's chief executive.
